

Turmoil & War in Europe?

Lucy Peterson
GAMBIA TRIBUNE

As the Nazi forces under the command of Adolf Hitler continue to occupy Czechoslovakia, Great Britain and France have guaranteed support to Poland against German aggression.

Hitler is believed to be negotiating with Mussolini over Italy's part in any upcoming conflict.

In Bathurst, His Majesty's First Gambian Reserves have been put on standby alert. An official spokesman confirmed that this was "as a precautionary measure only."

The Gambian government reminds visitors that travel papers must be carried at all times and should be made available for inspection by any official of the Gambian government. This is for your own convenience in these troubled times.

Also in Bathurst, Herr Heinrich Wehrmacht, the German ambassador to Gambia, made this statement.

See WAR, p2

MULTI-MILLIONAIRE'S FIRST GAMBIAN SAFARI

KENNY FLOOKER/GAMBIA TRIBUNE

John Sharpe, left, stands victoriously with his first trophy lion captured in Gambia. Local tribes continue to prove beneficial to helping Safari hunters achieve their big game goals.

The Gambia Tribune welcomes multimillionaire John Sharpe and his daughter Miranda to Gambia.

The American industrialist is enjoying the start of a six-week safari based out of Georgetown.

Sharpe is known to be a keen hunter and has travelled extensively in Africa, including safaris in Zimbabwe, The Congo, Tanzania and Cameroon.

On his first day of hunting, Sharpe added three lions and a crocodile to his trophy collection. He has hopes of diversifying his collection with hippos, a roan antelopes, and some of the many birds that flock along the Gambia River.

Sharpe has hired members of the native Mandinka tribe to serve as his guides along the Gambia.

This is Sharpe's first visit to Gambia - we wish him luck as he embarks on his journey through our mysterious and beautiful country that makes Gambia charmingly irresistible.

News in Brief

PEANUTS DOWN

Peanut plantations are reporting a bumper crop this year, driving the price of peanuts down to a five-year low. See

Detailed Peanut Analysis inside.

IDOL STOLEN

The Idol of Bones, an ancient good luck symbol from Mali has been reported stolen.

Sources report that the German authorities are paying good prices for ancient artifacts, and that the Idol is already on its way to Berlin.

See IDOL, p5

RIVER FEVER

Official sources deny reports of an outbreak of river fever in Mansa Konko yesterday. See report inside.

M. Cohen & Son
"Cohen's For Quality Since 1910"
SPECIAL VALUE TABLES THROUGHOUT
THE STORE... SHOP OFTEN