

The Weekly Herald

Dance-Off Competition Tonight

It's that time of year once again... This year's local dance-off competition will be taking place at Flo's Diner, tonight! So make sure you come on down and sign up! Entry is $20 per couple. Celebrity guest judges, including TV star Steven Starling and world-famous singer Mel Rivers, will judge this year's dance-off – the celebrities may even be willing to sign an autograph or two. So make sure you come on down to support your local business and enter the competition. Last year's winners Eric Anthony and Sally Larvis are sure to be tough competitors this time around. As, no doubt, will former champions from days of old, local doctor Peter Hodge and his wife Penny.

VICIOUS ATTACK ON PENNY HODGE

Two nights ago local resident Penny Hodge was reportedly attacked outside her home. Mrs Hodge stated that she was inside her house at around 7:00pm when she heard someone outside, and went to look. It was then that she saw what she describes as “one or possibly two young hoodlums – probably Ricky Johnson and a crony – wearing black masks and vandalizing my car.”

After being spotted, one of the vandals attacked Mrs Hodge. The culprits currently remain unknown; and anyone who has any information should report to Detective Hudson, who is leading investigations.

U.S. GAS CORP. SEEKS NEW SITES

The booming U.S. Gas Corporation is spreading out across America, so look out for us – one of our gas stations will be coming soon to a town near you! Business opportunities will be plenty, for our hard-working partners.

20 Years of Flo

Flo's Diner is marking its 20th anniversary this year, and what a twenty years it has been! Make sure you come on down to support this local business, which has continued to thrive over this period.

Our local lady and long-time owner (of the business: she rents the premises from a landlord) Flo Higgins has been through ups and downs since opening her establishment. After facing early troubles at the diner, with thefts and sudden departures of staff, Flo has soldiered through, and along with her newest team of staff is looking forward to the continued success of her diner.

DALLAS FULL OF IDEAS

Local business tycoon Dallas Anthony has promised us exciting money-making ideas which will lead to a new wave of attractions in our small town. Though Dallas has stated that all plans remain confidential, the scheme is sure to be big, and up to the Anthony family's usual high standard.

Flo's Diner

